

Postdoctoral Research Fellow

Position in polymer science with Professor Robert G Gilbert, University of Queensland.

The research program involves the characterization of the diffusive and structural properties of cereal non-starch polysaccharides, using techniques such as multiple-detection size exclusion chromatography, fluorescence recovery after photobleaching, and HPLC. This project is supported by the CSIRO Flagship program through the High Fibre Grains Collaboration Cluster.

For further details, contact Bob Gilbert:

b.gilbert@uq.edu.au, 07 3365 4809